EAD CARD (See Sample)

Once you receive your Employment Authorization (EAD) card, check your card for accuracy. Make a copy for your personal records. Keep the card safe – replacing the card requires another application and fee.

EAD Card Example

90-DAY UNEMPLOYMENT RULE

Once you receive your EAD card your OPT starts, you are given a maximum of 90 days of unemployment, during which you are allowed to have no job, internship, or other training activity. It is up to you to keep track of your unemployment period. To stop the unemployment clock, report your OPT job information (see next section).

UPDATING YOUR ADDRESS AND JOB INFORMATION DURING OPT

Once you receive your Employment Authorization Document (EAD) card, make a copy for your personal records. You are required to report address and job changes within 10 days of any changes.

1. Go to <http://iss.uoregon.edu/opt-update-form>
2. Log into iConnect using your DuckID and password
3. Search for “F-1 Student Services”
4. Click on the link for the “OPT UPDATE FORM”

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL DURING OPT

Contact ISSS for information about international travel during your OPT period. In general, F-1 students should travel with the following documents:

1. Passport valid at least six months into the future
2. Valid F-1 student visa (except for Canadian citizens)
3. OPT I-20 signed by ISSS within the past six months on the date of return to the US
 - a. Your I-20 should indicate that your OPT has been “approved” – contact ISSS for an updated I-20
4. EAD card (or I-797 Receipt Notice while waiting for OPT application to be processed)
5. Proof of employment (strongly recommended)

Contact ISSS at intl@uoregon.edu if you need an updated or replacement I-20 for travel. Please allow up to 15 days for mailing and delivery through US mail.

QUESTIONS?
