Changing From F-1 to F-2 Dependent Status

Who is this information for?

- You are already in the US in a valid non-immigrant status
- You have received Form I-20 for F-2 from the University of Oregon
- You have decided to change your status from inside the United States

What are the requirements for obtaining F-2 student status by applying to USCIS?

The main requirements include the following:

- Submission of Form I-539 to USCIS, along with supporting documents and I-539 filing fee ($370) and $85 biometric fee
- You must apply for a change of status before your current status expires
- Your current status must be valid up to at least 30 days before your requested F-2 status begins

What happens after I have obtained F-2 status?

You are required to comply with all F-2 rules once you have changed to F-2 dependent status by travel or by application. These rules include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Maintain an unexpired passport valid at least six months into the future at all times
- Principal F-1 must maintain an unexpired I-20
- Principal F-1 must maintain F-1 status
- No work allowed
- Part-time study allowed

Change of Status Application – Basic Steps

Step 1: Meet with an international student advisor in the Division of Global Engagement to request an F-2 dependent I-20.
- Call 541-346-3206 to make an appointment

Step 2: Prepare your I-539 Application Packet
- Make a copy of your complete application packet for your records

☐ Completed and signed USCIS Form I-539 (download from http://www.uscis.gov/i-539)
  - USCIS will only accept the revised Form I-539 with an edition date of 02/04/2019.
• Every co-applicant included on the primary applicant’s Form I-539 must submit and sign a separate Form I-539A. Parents may sign on behalf of children under 14.
• Every applicant and co-applicant must pay an $85 biometric services fee, except certain A, G, and NATO nonimmigrants as noted in the new Form I-539 instructions to be published on March 1, 2019.
• Every applicant and co-applicant will receive a biometric services appointment notice, regardless of age, containing their individual receipt number. The biometric services appointments will be scheduled at the Application Support Center (ASC) closest to the primary applicant’s address. Co-applicants who wish to be scheduled at a different ASC location should file a separate Form I-539.
